

Assignment 1.1 – How Computers Work

Write a few sentences explaining the following questions:

- a. What are the four main things every computer does?
- b. How is information represented in a computer's memory? For example, how could you represent the number 19?
- c. Describe the function of circuits and logic used by computers.
- d. How do people interact with modern computer hardware? What does the translating between code you write and the circuits of a CPU?
- e. What is the difference between memory and storage?